

OLD MADISON TAKES BIG STEP FORWARD

Fiscal Court Votes to Accept State and Federal Aid For Lexington Pike Work

The finest step forward that Madison county has ever taken toward good roads was made by the Fiscal Court at its meeting Tuesday morning when it voted to accept state and federal aid for building a permanent type of highway on seven miles of the Lexington pike out of Richmond.

The state and federal road departments will pay almost $200,000 of the cost of building this road, while Madison will have to pay but $55,000. This sum will be raised by disposing of the $35,000 bond issue a few years ago for road and bridge purposes and the remaining $20,000 out of the general fund. As the county will then be relieved of all cost of maintenance of the highway, it will be seen that the final cost to the taxpayers will be the very smallest possible, and in reality prove a boon to them.

The vote in the Fiscal Court was very close on the proposition, being four to four among the magistrates and then County Judge W. K. Price was called upon to break the tie, which he did, thus making the final vote five to four. The magistrates voting in favor of the proposition were Magistrates Williams, Benton, Engle and Collins. Those opposing it were Magistrates Todd, Long, Wilson and Mullins.

County Judge Price is being warmly congratulated and commended upon all sides for his vote in favor of the building of this permanent type of highway. Judge Price realizes what a step forward it will mean in every way for old Madison county and the vast benefits that will accrue in the future.

State Road Commissioner Joe S. Boggs, who spent Sunday here with his family, was very anxious to see Madison accept the offer that has been made by the state and federal road departments. As this is his home, he is naturally anxious that the splendid road force may be able to do something for his home county. Mr. Boggs says that he will have a force of engineers ready almost immediately to start the work of improvement, which is so badly needed.

Judge Shaeffer and other prominent citizens appeared before the meeting of the Fiscal Court and urged acceptance of the proposition.

CONLEY CONGLETON IN SLEEPING SICKNESS

Popular Young Man Victim of Strange Malady After Abscess in a Tooth

Conley Congleton has been taken to Louisville with what physicians say is a well defined case of sleeping sickness, the first, so far as known, victim of this new and strange malady from this section.

Mr. Congleton began to suffer with an abscess in a tooth some weeks ago and consulted a dentist. He immediately extracted the ailing molar and Mr. Congleton seemed to recover nicely. Within a few days, however, his eyesight began to trouble him, and he became practically blind. He consulted a specialist at Lexington, who diagnosed his ailment as the result of poison from the abscessed tooth, scattered over his system. Soon the young man became sleepy and was with difficulty aroused. He was immediately removed to a hospital in Louisville, where he is now being treated. He awakens sufficiently to take nourishment and at such times recognizes his wife and other relatives, who are almost constantly at his bedside. After being nourished, he relapses into sleep and remains in a comatose condition until again aroused to be fed.

The doctors at the hospital are said to have told the family that the ailment may affect Mr. Congleton for weeks or months. They really seem at a loss as to measures to take to effect a recovery, it is said, the new and strange malady having baffled even the medical fraternity wherever it has made its appearance.

Mr. Congleton is a very popular young farmer. He moved with his family a few years ago from this city to a handsome farm on the Richmond Lexington pike, in Fayette county.

LIMESTONE HELPS CORN YIELD

(By Associated Press)
Lexington, Ky., Feb. 1.—Figures showing that limestone applied in addition to acid phosphate increased the yield of corn 13.9 bushels per acre, that of wheat 7.6 bushels and clover 2,143 pounds per acre on Kentucky fertility fields outside of the bluegrass area, were produced by P. E. Karraker, field agent in soils at the State College of Agriculture, in his lecture on "Liming the Soil," here this morning to farmers attending the ninth annual "Farm and Home" convention of the College of Agriculture. Mr. Karraker explained the use and need of limestone in Kentucky soils and declared that practically all soils outside the bluegrass area and some of the poorer ones inside the area were in need of liming.

"On account of its great cheapness," said Mr. Karraker, "limestone is the most common liming material used in Kentucky. Figuring even high prices for the cost of buying and applying the material, it will pay for itself several times over. The use of limestone on most of the soil of the state is a very important step in the care of them if they are continually growing richer. Without the use of this material it will become more and more difficult to keep production up to even its present low level."

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 1.—John Cravens, an engineer on the C. & O. railroad, has just been awarded the William Howard Taft prize of $75 for the best first aid act performed by railroad man in 1920 by the American Red Cross. The award was made as a result of Cravens' having stopped his train at Duckers, Ky., eight miles east of Frankfort, and with the aid of the train crew throwing a rope to a boy who had broken through the ice while skating. The boy was pulled out by Cravens and his life saved.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN

Prewitt Willoughby, one of the very best coal men in the business, has agreed to take the road again for his old love, the Atlas Coal and Coke Co. of Chicago. His headquarters will be Richmond and he will travel over considerable of this territory. The mines are located in the Benham section of Harlan county. The Willoughby coal business here will have the same constant and attentive supervision of Hubert Willoughby while his brother is out on the road.

The Daily Register got the impression that Dr. Homer W. Carpenter, pastor of the First Christian church, was going to leave Saturday for that big interdenominational conference at St. Louis. However, he didn't plan to leave until Monday, and as the paper said Saturday that he was leaving that day, the popular sky pilot came mighty near having to preach to empty benches on Sunday morning.

A few of the faithful who evidently don't believe everything they see in the papers, dropped in on him, and the highways and byways were invaded with the result that the congregation finally assumed fairly respectable proportions. However, this paper's innocent and regrettable error in fixing Dr. Carpenter's schedule, proved to him and a lot of others that the columns of the Daily Register are read rather thoroughly—you might say, religiously—by the good—that is, the church-going—people of Richmond, anyway.

That little hog that Prohibition Officer Samuels seized in the road he made on Webb and Bicknell's wagon Sunday night, was grunting mightily when he was brought back through town along with the other loot. He must have had a premonition that he wasn't going to get a chance to eat all that still slop from those 36 bags of meal that the two boys had with them to use in their first class little still. T. B. Collins was standing on the street as the procession passed up to the government building and folks were remarking on the hog's loud grunting.

"Can't you tell what that pig's saying?" asked the popular Squire. "Why's saying right along: 'Ruht, ruht, ruht.'"

RELIGIOUS CONFERENCE AT ST. LOUIS

(By Associated Press)
St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 1.—The first of a series of interdenominational conferences, looking toward unification of all Christian denominations, will open here tomorrow, with prominent church men present from various sections of the country.

Similar conferences are scheduled to be held at Dallas, Texas, February 5 to 7, and at Cleveland and Baltimore, respectively, in Easter week.

Methods of effecting harmony and cooperation among the Christian sects will be the paramount issue before all the conferences, according to the Rt. Rev. F. F. Johnson, of this city, coadjutor bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Missouri, chairman of the arrangements committee.

"It is expected," Bishop Johnson explained, "that the conference will issue a strong appeal to the churches of America for co-operation and unity of fellowship, with ultimate union of all denominations as to the be." The conferences were called by the Association for the Promotion of Christian Unity, the president of which is the Rev. Peter Amdie, of Baltimore.

Dollars and Cents

Counting it only in dollars and cents how much did that last cold cost you? A man may not always stop work when he has a cold, but perhaps it would be better if he did. It takes about ten days to get completely rid of a cold under the usual treatment. That time can be much shortened by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and proper care of yourself, in fact, a bottle of this remedy in the house is a mighty good investment during the winter and spring months. reb

JURY ASKS FOR CERTAIN EVIDENCE

In Winnes Case—Two Reported Holding Out for Conviction of Veterinarian

(By Associated Press)

Harlan, Ky., Feb. 1.—The jury trying Dr. H. C. Winnes on the charge of murdering Miss Laura Parsons, interrupted their deliberations today to ask the court that certain testimony be read.

It has been reported that one or two of the jurors are holding out for conviction on the strength of this testimony, which inquires that of Mary Ellis, who said Winnes was a quarter of a mile behind Miss Parsons the day she was killed; Wilson Lewis who repeated certain remarks Winnes' is alleged to have made about her end, and Sheriff Howard who testified that Winnes told him he was about 40 minutes behind Miss Parsons on the day of the murder.

Harlan, Ky., Feb. 1.—The Winnes case was given the jury at 9:30 o'clock Monday night. After deliberating until 10:30 o'clock the jury reported to the court that there seemed no prospect of reaching a verdict quickly, and, accordingly, the jury was looked up for the night under guard of sheriffs, and court adjourned until this morning. So far as could be learned, no ballots were taken while the jury was out.

Harlan, Ky., Feb. 1.—Charges that authorities at the Kentucky State Reformatory at Frankfort, denied to attorneys for the defense the privilege of interviewing certain negro convicts, who were alleged to have been implicated in the murder of Miss Laura Parsons, Pine Mountain Settlement school teacher, unless such interviews were conducted in the presence of prison guards or officials, were among the statements made today by Attorney D. C. Jones, counsel for the defense, in the closing argument in the trial of Dr. H. C. Winnes, former Cincinnati, who is charged with having killed Miss Parsons.

Jones declared that when he went to the Frankfort penitentiary to interview Jerry Reed, negro convict, he was informed by W. H. Moyer, superintendent at the prison, that he could not see any prisoners there unless it was in the presence of a guard or the prison secretary.

"These negro convicts, who were alleged to have been implicated in the murder and whom I wished to interview in this connection, were so browbeaten by their guards and officers and told to keep silent regarding facts in connection with the crime, that to talk to them in the presence of the guards would have been useless," Jones charged in his argument. "The authorities at the prison, having heard that several convicts who were confined in the penitentiary at Frankfort were implicated in the murder, were so afraid of losing their jobs, if the true facts of the case were brought out, that they made successful efforts to sew up the case in several ways. It is doubtful, even should an investigation be made, whether it ever will become known who really did kill Miss Parsons."

The final arguments were not commenced until nearly 3 o'clock Monday afternoon, due to the fact that several witnesses on both sides were late in arriving. Before the arguments began it was agreed that the argument should be limited to three hours for each side, with four speakers.

In his statement Jones declared that the evidence against Dr. Winnes was purely circumstantial and declared that the prosecution in the case was a complete farce.

There are people who never have a movement of the bowels without it is produced by a cathartic. Most of them have brought this condition on themselves by the use of mineral waters and strong cathartics that take too much water out of the system and aggravate the disease they are meant to relieve. GIANT STILL FOUND SOUTH OF BEREA

Revenue Raiders Discover Most Elaborate Moonshine Making Outfit in Rockcastle

The biggest and most complete moonshine still ever captured in Rockcastle county was destroyed near Gap, five miles south of Berea, Sunday morning by Federal Agents Steve Cornett and Branch P. Epps, of the prohibition force, and County Judge Cam Mullins, of Vernon.

Charles Owens, living five miles south of Berea, just over the Rockcastle county line, and near whose home the still was found, was arrested and turned over to County Judge Mullins, who took him to Mt. Vernon to be prosecuted in the county court, according to the officers. Government officials said federal warrants will be issued for him and several other men thought to have been connected with the operation of the still.

The still was of 100 gallons capacity and was equipped with a complete outfit of distilling apparatus, it was said. A six-coil copper worm 8 feet long, 600 gallons of beer, 15 100-gallon fermenters, a furnace carefully constructed of cut stone, several hundred feet of rubber hose, numerous containers and vats and a quantity of roofing material were destroyed by the officers. No whisky was found at the still, officers said, but evidence indicated a run had been made Saturday night and the "finished product" hauled away in a wagon shortly before the arrival of the officers.

The outfit was located on Roundstone creek, half a mile from the home of Owens and the same distance from a public road. Agent Cornett said it was the most completely equipped moonshine outfit he had ever run across and that "everything was constructed as though the owners expected to continue at the same stand for years."

Rubber hose led from a spring 100 feet away from which water was piped by gravity to the still. Gravity drain pipes led from the still and all pipe connections were equipped with steamfitter's valves.

The whole outfit was junked and piled together and burned by the officers. It made a fire that could be seen for miles around and attracted a number of visitors to the scene.

The arrest of Owens followed the finding of a bushel of malt corn hidden in hay in his barn loft.

The officers proceeded from Mt. Vernon to the north end of Rockcastle county by automobile in the rainstorm of Saturday night and reached the vicinity of the still at 5 o'clock Sunday morning. They lay in hiding watching for someone to approach the still until 9 o'clock, when it became evident that the operators had been tipped off to their coming.

A Card Of Great Importance

Once each season it becomes my pleasant duty to announce to the patrons of Macauley's Theater an unusual and wonderful treat which stands out prominently above all other shows of the theatrical year.

Such an event is now about to occur here, and owing to the experience of last season, I desire to serve ample warning to my patrons of an opportunity that should not be neglected.

Last season all known theatrical records in this city were shattered to smithereens by the worlds most beautiful production, "Chu Chin Chow," presented by P. Ray Comstock and Morrist Gest.

Theatergoers need scarcely be reminded of the extraordinary demand for seats, of the terrific rush on the box office, of the packed houses and the thousands of would-be patrons who could not get near the box office in order to buy seats.

Nothing like the extraordinary success of "Chu Chin Chow" in this city last season has been known in a generation. It is a genuine spectacle in 11 big scenes, employing more than 300 people.

Now I am proud and happy to announce that I have just contracted with Messrs. Comstock and Gest to bring "Chu Chin Chow" back for a return engagement beginning Monday evening, February 7.

Mail orders for all performances during the week of February 7 will now be received. Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope for return of tickets and enclose proper remittance. Prices—Nights $1.10, $1.65, $2.20, $2.75 and $3.30. Saturday and Wednesday matinees, $1.10, $1.65, $2.20 and $2.75. These prices include War Tax.

Since "Chu Chin Chow" was here last season, it has been gorgeously outfitted with new costumes among them 45 new manikin costumes, imported direct from London, and it has played a second engagement at the beautiful Century Theater where it had already been play an ENTIRE SEASON. This superb and gorgeous musical extravaganza of the Orient is now in its THIRD YEAR in this country, and it is in its FOURTH YEAR in His Majesty's Theater, London, where Oscar Asche is appearing in it to capacity houses.

If you have not seen "Chu Chin Chow," do not miss this last opportunity to see the world's wonder show in all its glory.

A Splendid Day's Work

Every citizen of Madison county who unselfishly looks to the future, will be glad of the action that the Fiscal Court took in voting to accept state and federal aid for the rebuilding of the Richmond and Lexington pike. The issue of the old road and bridge bonds will defray the major portion of the county's minor part of the expense. To have failed to accept the almost $200,000 which the state and federal governments offered would have been almost unthinkable. If Madison ever was to make a start on good roads this was the time. The magistrates who looked at it in that light and County Judge Price deserve the sincerest commendation of everyone. Their work will live long after them and future generations will rise up and call them blessed.

DEATH OF LITTLE CLIFFORD GAINES

(Contributed)

The Angel of Death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Gaines, on Sunset avenue, on Sunday night and bore away the son of their only child, Clifford, who has been permitted to bless their lives for eleven years.

Clifford was a child of suffering and pain. He never knew the happiness of robust health, which most children enjoy; but regardless of his physical condition, his mental alertness was unusual. Quick in his studies, intelligent in conversation, and enthusiastic in the games which his health permitted him to enter with his young playmates, he gave promise of a bright future. But God knows best and the brave young spirit has gone out into that vast eternity from which no traveler ever returns.

His trust in God, and hope for a place where pain is unknown, where the lamb of God wipes away the tears of His little ones, was beautifully expressed in his dying inquiries about his heavenly home where he will suffer no more.

Broken hearted, his parents will lay him away on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30, in the Richmond cemetery. The beautiful flowers which sympathetic friends have sent will cover his grave and his body will await the resurrection morn. The happiness has gone out of their lives, but they know that the Heavenly Father above will one day bring them to the joy of his presence where their child has preceded them only a little while.

Announcement is made by the Oliver Chilled Plow Works of a general price reduction in their lines that brings prices to the basis of 1918. Skeens, of Dunbar, West Virginia.

"I had a terrible attack of influenza that left my stomach so badly out of order that what little food I forced myself to eat caused me so much pain and distress from indigestion that I could hardly endure it.

"Rheumatism set up in my back, shoulders, arms and practically my whole body. I fell off until I only weighed ninety-seven pounds and became so nervous that I would lie for hours without closing my eyes.

"I finally got in such a bad condition I had to go to bed, and after failing to get relief from special treatments I turned to Tanlac as a last hope.

"Before I finished the first bottle I felt better and now I hardly feel like the same person. I have taken seven bottles in all and my appetite is so good it seems that I can't eat all I want and I never have the slightest pain or discomfort after eating.

"The rheumatic pains have disappeared, my nerves are quiet and steady, I sleep like a child night and wake up mornings feeling fine. I have gained twelve pounds in weight, too, and am so much stronger I am looking after my housework again."

Tanlac is sold in Richmond by Stockton & Son; at Berea by the Welch Department Store and at College Hill by Inter Bros.

Selznick Picture

A Thrilling Sea Story
Captain of the sealing schooner,
"The Ghost," "Wolf" Larsen rules with an iron hand and believes that "might makes right." In a fight with his brother "Death" Larsen, "Wolf" is knocked out by a blow over the head with a bottle. Regaining consciousness, he returns to his ship.

A ferry boat and "The Ghost" crash in the fog in San Francisco bay. Humphrey Van Weyden, a rich young idler, and Maude Brewster, the woman he loves, are rescued and taken aboard the schooner, which is headed out to sea. Maude doesn't love Humphrey because she believes him a weakling. "Wolf" refuses to put the castaways ashore, but makes Humphrey cabin boy and treats him roughly.

George Leach, former cabin boy, and Johnson, a sailor, enraged against "Wolf" for his brutal treatment of them, throw him and the mate overboard. The mate is drowned, but "Wolf" comes up the logline and over the side. Once on deck, he beats up his whole crew, but at the end is seized with a terrible headache, the result of being smitten with the bottle.

"The Ghost" reaches the seal ground. "Death" Larsen's ship heaves into sight. "Death" tries to come aboard "Wolf's" ship with part of his crew, but "Wolf" has them bound and gagged. That night he steers into a fog bank to escape his brother's vessel. Going to Maude's cabin, he attacks her. Humphrey put up a losing fight to defend the girl, but at the climax "Wolf" succumbs to another of his blinding headaches.

Humphrey and Maude escape in an open boat to an uninhabited island.
"Wolf's" crew deserts and he is left alone on "The Ghost" which runs ashore on the island. "Wolf" paralyzed, blind, and helpless, is cared for by Maude. Soon afterward he dies. The castaways are picked up by a revenue cutter.

At the opera house tonight.

Mr. Heerman's forte is comedy prothe deft touches at the psychological moment in his pictures, has materially aided his advance as a director.

He wrote comedies for Mack Sennett

the studio management that Mr. Heer-comedies.

SWEAR OFF TOBACCO

"No-To-Bac" has helped thousands to break the costly, nerve-shattering tobacco habit. When ever you have a longing for a cigarette, cigar, pipe, or for a chew just place a harmless No-To-Bac tablet in your mouth instead, to help relieve that awful desire.
Shortly the habit may be completely broken, and you are better off mentally, physically, financially. It's so easy, so simple. Get a box of No-To-Bac and if it doesn't relieve you from all craving for tobacco in any form, your druggist will refund you money without question.

For The Children
Too much care cannot be exercised in selecting a cough medicine for the children. It should be pleasant to take, contain no harmful drug and most effectual in curing their coughs and colds. Long experience has shown that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets these conditions. It is a favorite with many mothers. feb

THE HOWARD-TURNER FEUD IN HARLAN

(By Associated Press)

Harlan, Ky., Feb. 1.—The little red brick court house of Harlan county, which soon is to give way to a modern $125,000 court house and jail building, is one of the historic spots of the Cumberland valley. About fifty years ago centered one of the bitterest feuds that ever marred the peace of the mountains—the Howard-Turner feud that rivalled in the number of men slain and its bitterness, the famous Hatfield-McCoy feud of West Virginia and Breathitt county of more recent days.

In the walls about the little court room, in which Dr. H. C. Winnies, charged with the murder of Miss Lura Parsons, Pine Mountain school teacher, fought for his life before a jury, can still be seen the marks of the bullets fired during the feudal "battle of Harlan court house." This was one of the bitterest of a number of noted fights among which were the "Big Fight at Poor Fork," in which Elhamon Howard's house figured, and the "Battle of the Bend of the Cumberland." The "Battle of Harlan Court House" was fought about 1868.

The feud started about the time of the civil war over a dispute between the sons of the two families. Armed bodies of men, said to have numbered about 150 men on each side, were maintained by both sides. The fighting men were paid 50 cents a day for their services. There were several scores of killings marked up against one or the other of the factions during the troubles.

The Howards lived at Baxter, a mile or so below Harlan, and the Turners lived in the little settlement of a dozen or more houses about Harlan court house. As a result of this feud, Will Jennings, parener of Wilson Howard, spent about 10 years of a life sentence in the Kentucky penitentiary.

While the feud was at its height the Turner faction had the advantage legally in that Wilson Lewis, a partisan, was county judge. But in 1868 the Howards pulled off a coup that resulted in their getting possession of the court house. The Turner forces retired to Ivy Hill, 400 yards distant, the first ridge of Big Black Mountain lying between Clover Fork and Poor Fork, the streams that join here to form the Cumberland river. There under the leadership of Judge Lewis and a member of the Turner family, they undertook to shoot Howards out of the court house. Many of the bullets missed the windows and the marks can still be seen on the walls. Several men were killed in this fight.

BOYS' CAPS—A BIG SELECTION TO SELECT FROM—NOW ON SALE AT ONE-HALF PRICE

You've seen plenty of sales; some of them good ones—others not so good. You've never seen a bigger value-giving event than this. We don't believe any other store in this town has ever sold fine goods for so much less than they are actually worth.

This sale begins Thursday; final reductions on our entire fall and winter stock of fine clothes, shoes and men's furnishings. If, after you buy, you think there are greater bargains elsewhere—money back. That's how positive we are that this is Richmond's greatest sale.

ANOTHER TUNNEL SLIDE AND OTHERS ARE FEARED

Middlesboro, Ky., Feb. 1.—The second landslide in four days at the Southern entrance to the Cumberland Gap tunnel tied up traffic and presented a heavy task for steam shovels and night and day crews. It is feared another slide will be unleashed through the removal of the lower masses of rock and earth.

Mrs. SELCHERT'S DAUGHTER

Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Horicon, Wis.—"My young daughter had been troubled for several months with backache and a bad feeling in her stomach. When she got to the table to eat she did not want anything, while before she was so hungry she could hardly wait for her dinner. The doctors gave her medicine but it did not help her. One day I was reading a little book of yours which was left on my porch and it reminded me that when I was a young girl I took several bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. So she went to the drug store and got a bottle and after the second one she could eat and had no backache since. In all she took six bottles of it. She goes to school and on Saturdays helps with the housework. She is a normal, healthy girl now and we recommend your medicine. You have my permission to publish this letter as a testimonial for the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. FRANK SELCHERT, 150 Larabee St., Horicon, Wis.

Mothers all over the country have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to be a most reliable remedy for such conditions.

FIREBUG STARTS BLAZE IN EACH OF FIVE ROOMS

Cynthiana, Ky., Feb. 1.—Two attempts were made to destroy the residence of J. W. Renaker, occupied by M. R. Mokes, whose family were absent at a function in the country. The fire first extinguished was in the kitchen in the cellar. When the department responded to a second alarm, firemen found flames in beds in two rooms, in a dresser drawer of another, beneath a table of a fourth room and in the kitchen cabinet. State authorities are making an investigation.

HOT, DIZZY FEELING

Atlanta Lady's Uncomfortable and Annoying Condition Relieved, She Says, by Cardui.

Atlanta, Ga.—Miss Alice Frances Young, of 28 East Alexander Street, this city, says: "After entering womanhood, I suffered so much with womanly weakness. My back ached, I would have, at certain times, a hot feeling that seemed to go to my head. Even my shoulders would hurt, and it made me very dizzy and uncomfortable. When the blood would flow to my head—I suppose that was what it was—I would faint and feel so weak. 'I couldn't do my work. I had a good position, and this was surely annoying as well as embarrassing. I would usually have to go home and go to bed. I certainly suffered greatly. I heard of Cardui, and my mother bought it for me. It was the first and only medicine that ever did me any good for this trouble.' Dizziness, headache, sideache, back ache, tired-out feeling and other disagreeable symptoms are often signs of womanly troubles. Thousands of women who formerly suffered from these and similar ailments have found Cardui a very valuable remedy. Cardui is composed of pure, vegetable ingredients which have long been recognized as of medicinal value in the treatment of many diseases and disorders peculiar to women. Take Cardui. Your druggist sells it. NC-140

HARDING REQUESTS A SPECIAL SENATE

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Feb. 1.—A request from President-elect Harding for a special new Senate to be called for March 4th, to confirm cabinet and other appointments by the incoming executive, was conveyed today to President Wilson. Such session is customary where there is change in administrations.

NEW RUSSIAN RULE FORMED

Paris, Feb. 1.—Formal application is about to be made to Great Britain, France and the United States to recognize the present Constituent Assembly as the rightful existing Russian government. The Assembly, just created here of all Russian elements, is opposed to Bolshevism.

Thirty-three members of the Assembly were elected in Russia in 1917 by popular vote. Elections held under Bolshevik rule failed to obtain more than forty per cent of the seats. Lenin dissolved the Assembly in January, 1918, when his followers were in the minority. The majority members left Russia but many of them were jailed. Those escaping regrouped in Paris and formed the Assembly.

GERMANY CAN'T PAY

(By Associated Press)
Berlin, Feb. 1.—Bulletin—Doctor Walter Simons, German Foreign Minister, will tell the Reichstag this afternoon that Germany cannot subscribe to the Allied reparations demands because it is not possible of fulfillment, according to the Boersen Zeitung.

CORN KNIFE USED AT CHITLING SUPPER

As a result of a slight misunderstanding at a chitling supper given at the home of Will Roller in "Chicago," north of the postoffice, Leech Bronston was fined $50 and costs, and all concerned in the party are to have a hearing later on a charge of buying and selling liquor. The parties involved are all colored. Roller gave the party and Bronston accompanied by Charles Edill, and Green Finley went to the supper without invitations, it seems. They said that they had previously bought some whisky from Roller and wanted to talk to him about it. Anyway, some misunderstanding arose and in the melee, Roller inhospitably hit Bronston on the nose with a corn knife, almost losing that member for the victim. Bronston grabbed a lamp and smashed it on the floor and they seemed to have been a rough house generally for a short time, until the police took a hand.

SAYS IT'S FINEST 'SHINE EVER MADE

Three and a half gallons of what Sherman Davis, of Jackson county, frankly told the officers was "the finest moonshine licker" that can be made, were taken from Davis when he alighted from the L. & A. train at the Richmond depot by local police officers Monday afternoon. Davis had the 'shine in a suit case. He was to have met a couple of men here and the inference was that they were would-be purchasers of the white lightning. Davis frankly confessed the whole thing to the officers when taken in charge. He was held before Police Judge Murray Smith Monday night and fined $100 and given 10 days in jail. The attention of federal officers is understood to have also been called to his case.

UNION SUPPLY CO. ASSIGNS
With assets of about $5,000 and liabilities of probably $11,000, the Union Supply Company, of this city, made an assignment Monday to C. C. Wallace. Poor collections and pressure by out of town houses for payment are said to be responsible for the closing up of this institution which was started by a corporation of men mostly farmers, hoping to be able to secure their supplies cheaper. Mr. Wallace says that the big supply of everything carried at the storeroom on Irvine street will be sold out at once for cash. He is advertising the bargains he is going to offer in other columns.

Friends are glad to know that Mrs. W. E. Luxon, Sr., is improving rapidly from a fall sustained last week and it is thought she will soon be out again.
